Hello,
The Department is planning to designate January 28 as a day to remind staff of the need to protect the information held by the department and to reinforce strategies each employee can take to protect this information.

Please read and distribute the attached flier. I hope to see you in the auditorium for one of the video sessions. I viewed the video and it is humorous while still making good points for us to consider. The PDAO has also provided some handouts to us and these will be available in the auditorium as well.

Thanks,
Peggy DiNatale
